

Red Lake County

is not perfect but definitely not the worst

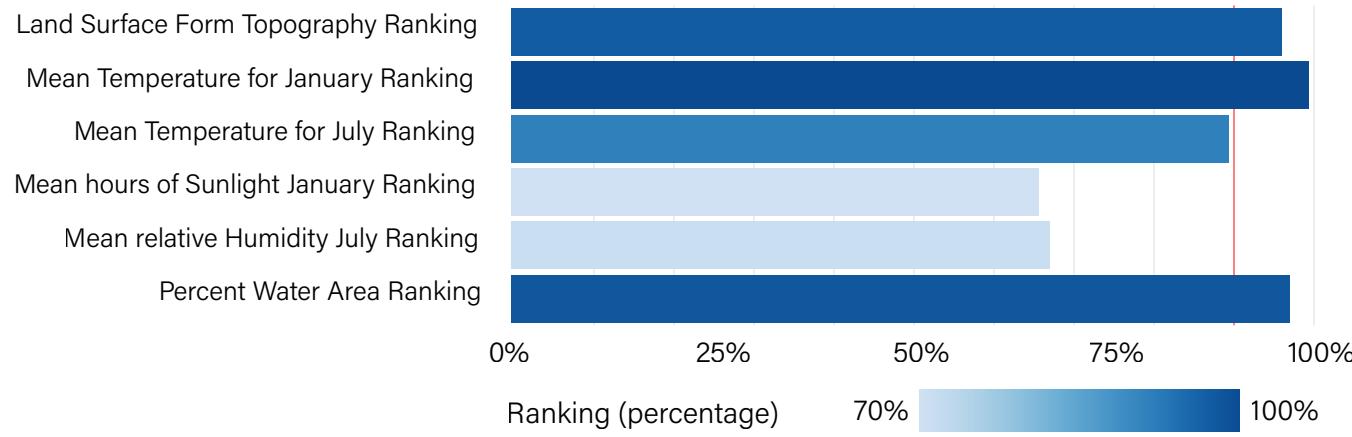

Is Red Lake County rich and people there all go to college?

Not really, the mean household income of Red Lake County is 54444.098 dollar, which only beats 22% of counties in the US.

Only 13% of people in Red Lake County aged 25 or older who have a bachelor's degree, master's degree, professional school degree, or doctorate degree.

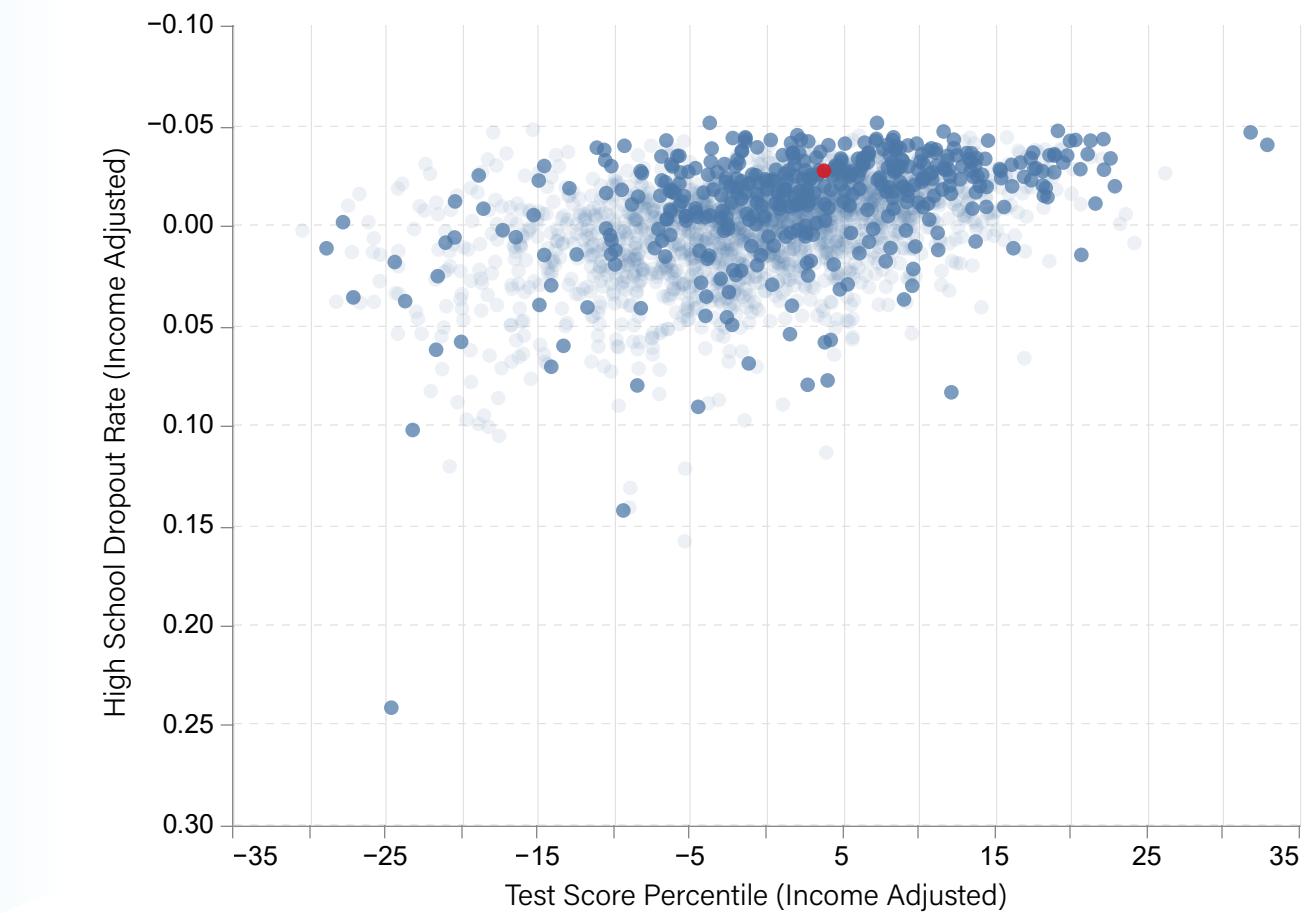

Does Red Lake County have good natural amenities?

No, the ranking (in percentage) of all six natural amenities are over 50% and more than 3 of them are larger than 90%. That's why Red Lake County is called the "America's worst place to live"

EDUCATION

Red Lake County provides decent fundamental education

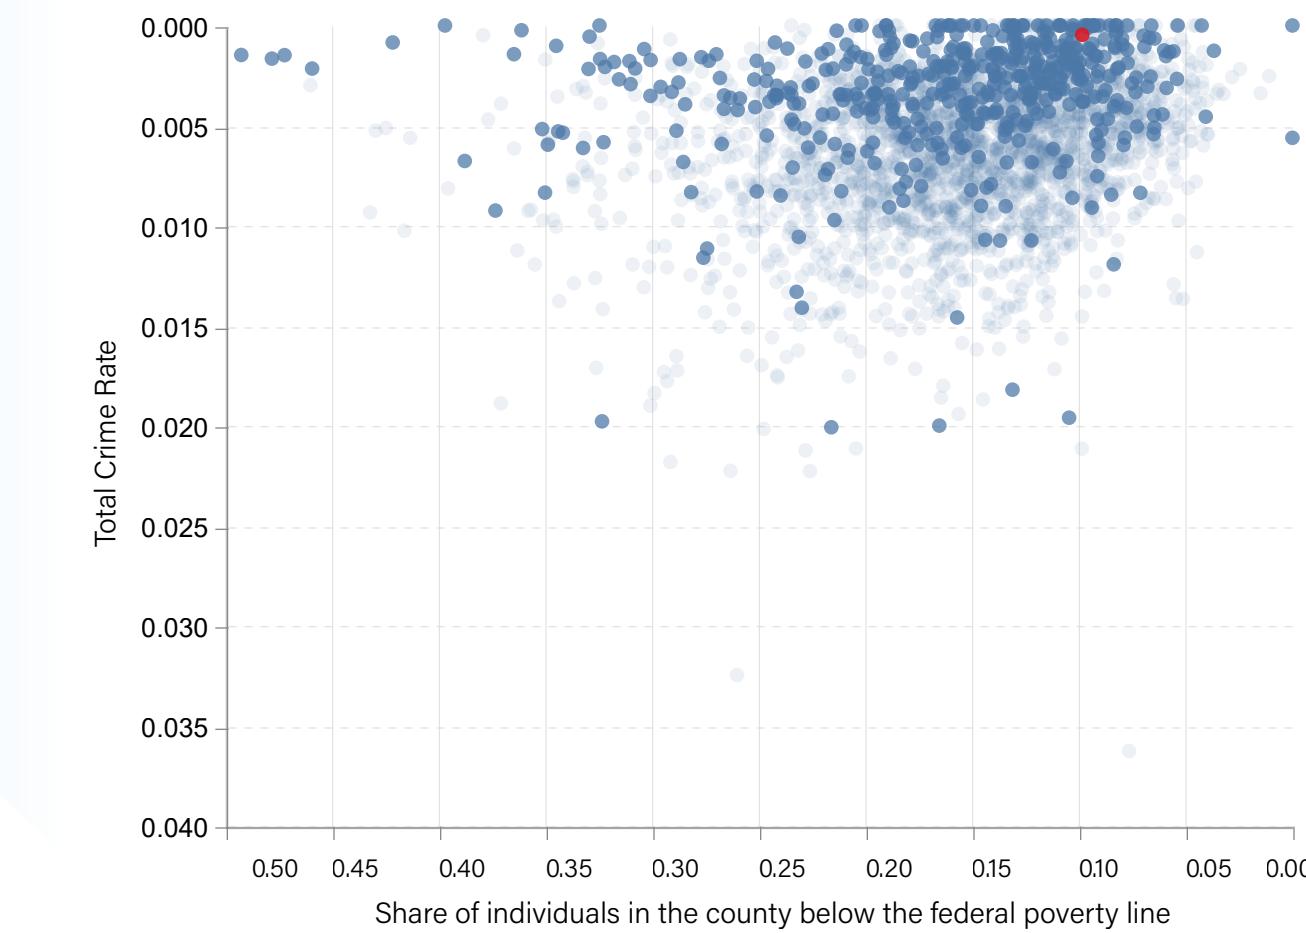

Red Lake County has a low high school drop out rate at 2.65%, which ranks very high in all counties.

Nevertheless, the test score of high school students in Red Lake County is descent. The test score percentile of Red Lake County is 3.89%.

ECONOMY

High rankings in poverty rate and crime rate makes Red Lake County a good place to live in Only 10.7% of people in Red Lake County are below the federal poverty line.

The total crime rate of Red Lake County is extremely close to zero, which is 0.00047%.

Red Lake County has done a great job in decreasing the unemployment rate

The unemployment Rate of Red Lake County has dropped from 15.1% in 1990 to 6% in 2015, which is a lot faster compared to the average of all counties in the United States as well as the average of other completely rural counties.